County Cups Committee Board

On behalf of the Gloucestershire FA County Cups Committee Board, I would like to welcome today's teams, Chalford 4ths and Longlevens 5ths and their players, club officials and supporters to Oaklands Park for this Primary Cup (North) match. I also welcome the match officials, Natalie Poolton, Joshua Phillips, Jason James and Conor McQuillian, whose appointment recognises their performances this season. I hope they enjoy the occasion. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the GFA staff and the County Cups Committee members for all their hard work. Their combined work is vital to the success of our cup competitions. It only remains for me to wish both teams and the match officials good luck for today's game and hope that it is a memorable occasion for you all.

Manager's Comment

Chalford 4th Team have had a good season, currently sitting in 4th Position in the Stroud League division 6, having played 18 games and winning 10. The Management duo of Ian Butcher and Julian Townsend have the side playing some very good football and believe in playing football the right way. We are a blend of youth and experience, in this squad and it's good to see some of the players develop under the guidance of experience in our 4th team.

Manager's Comment

With an average age of 40 some may say Longlevens 5ths more affectionately known as the TQ's (Tequila Quintos) would be better served plying their trade in a walking football league or, better still, on the lawn bowls circuit , however this season the joints have been well oiled and there still seems to be life in the old dogs yet .

With the TQ's searching for their first cup success in their four year existence they'll have certainly done it the hard way if prevailing in tonight's showpiece against a strong Chalford side . Three difficult draws in the previous rounds against Redbrook Rovers , Cheltenham Tigers and latterly the high flying Stratton Reserves saw the old timers secure 6-1, 3-1 and 4-0 victories to secure a place in tonight's final .

Never let them tell you you're too old!! Arthritis and sky-plussing Countdown will take care of that!! 1 more year!!
