Manager's Comment

Founded by Toby Tucker in 2019, Sporting Turin has enjoyed a rapid rise despite early setbacks from COVID. After claiming their first trophy in the 2021 All Saints Cup, the club achieved three consecutive promotions and now competes in Division 1 of the Bristol Downs League.

This season's GFA Cup run has been a standout, starting with a 5-1 win over Totterdown Reserves featuring four goals from debutant Joe Memory. Joe bagged another hat-trick in a 6-1 victory over Bradley Stoke Town Reserves. A dramatic quarter-final saw Jack Ferguson level the game before Turin triumphed on penalties, with Charlie Sewell, Drew Laskey, Marc McMaster, and Jonny Dodkins scoring from the spot. Although we received a bye in the semi-final, it gave the squad a much-needed rest. Tonight's final against Woodlands FC promises to be a tough test, but the lads are hungry for silverware and ready to fight to the finish.

Manager's Comment

Well, well, well... Another year, another GFA Final for the Hogs.

If you listen carefully, you can still hear the whispers of last year's Intermediate Final deep in the trees, rivers, and valleys of Gloucestershire. The legendary 4-3 turnaround victory dubbed "Bristanbul" fills Hog fans with unparalleled jubilation.

But in the heart of spring, a new challenge grows from the fertile soils of Oaklands as Woodlands FC face the creme de la creme of the Downs League in the Final of the Junior Cup.

The Hogs have already had to brave the wonky lines, howling winds, ankle breaking divots, and rogue dogs of Durdham Down twice en route to the hallowed turf of Oaklands Park - dispatching both Sporting Greyhounds and Retainers.

As well as representatives from the Downs, Woodlands FC have beaten Wessex Reserves 4-0, Seymour Utd 9-0 and Bromley Heath Reserves 3-1.

Disappointed to not have a rematch of last year's final against Made For Ever, the Hogs are keen to roll around in some 4G bits with Sporting Turin and hope that hands can be shook and friends can be made at the end of the evening.

(I will literally do anything to win)
