A lot has changed in the last decade for Swindon Town Women – not least our name. Ten years ago, as Town Ladies, we had just joined the newly formed South West Combination League.

Having worked our way through the divisions of the Southern Regional League, Town qualified to join the top clubs from the South West Regional in a new competition. Three was our magic number at the start of the decade: we finished third in the new league in each of the first three seasons, as well as claiming the all the first three editions of the new associated League Cup. A picture of that side now hangs in the Legends Lounge.

The new league structure meant travelling to clubs throughout the South West. They included Newquay, bringing experiences which may be standard for the men's side, but were a first for us: driving down Saturday afternoon and staying in a hotel overnight before the game.

Later, the league was merged into the National League, with Town playing in Division One South West; in 2016, we were promoted into the Premier Division, joining clubs such as Tottenham Hotspur, Crystal Palace and Charlton Athletic. Competition was fierce, but Town avoided relegation in hard-fought battles with West Ham United and Queens Park Rangers.

The following season, Town re-joined the FA Women's League Division One South West, where we currently play.

MANAGERS VIEW

Firstly I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate both teams on getting through to today's final, I am sure we can all look forward to a great game of football. In terms of history, as a team, compared to our opponents today ours is comparatively short, but I am sure we have the same ambitions, I think as a club and as a team with regards to Women's football we have come a long way in a very short period of time.

Last year, our first season as a team in the Wiltshire County Women's league saw us gain promotion to the South West Eastern league 1, and although this season has been stop/start for various reasons the campaign has again been positive for the town, winning the last 4 games and sitting in a great position in the league with games in hand, plus today's final, we now want to carry that momentum in the games we have left and look forward to another great season for the club. Finally I just want to thank everyone for their help and support so far this season, the club, especially the Chairman, Dave Parry, Secretary Steve Spratt, Lewis Graham, our head coach, all our family and supporters, it great to see the numbers steadily increasing at our games and then finally to the players who with-out their commitment and hard work we wouldn't be here today.

So thank you all and enjoy the day
Tim Fry, Manager,
Warminster Town Ladies
