

ALL BETS ARE OFF

You are not allowed to place ANY bet on ANY football, ANYWHERE in the world.

This covers any match or competition, wherever it is played in the world. It means you cannot bet on scores or results, or any other event that takes place in any match or competition. It also means you cannot bet on any other football matter, worldwide – for example, who the next manager of a club will be.

So don't fall foul of the rules and remember – you cannot place ANY bet on ANY football, ANYWHERE.
