"We had a great day. The team looking after us were incredibly helpful. The room was great and being able to sit out in the stands for some of our activities added to the atmosphere of our day – we loved the cheers from the various tour groups, they just added to it!"

I would just like to say a huge thanks for all your help and support for yesterday’s event, both before and during the event. A lot of people at Wembley helped us throughout the day so please pass on our thanks to all those involved. Everyone we came into contact with was friendly, helpful and knowledgeable. The reports back from the delegates were excellent and the clients were very pleased. The food and the service throughout the day was excellent, and I look forward to my next event with you.

CASE STUDY: LONDON SPORT

CLIENT:
London Sport

EVENT SPACES:
Bobby Moore Room and Pitch side

EVENT BRIEF:
London Sport Awards 2018: A celebratory awards evening recognising individuals and organisations at grass roots level for sports and volunteer programmes across the city. 450 guests were invited to attend an evening of food, drinks and celebrations.

THE EVENT:
Guests arrived on an astro-turf style red carpet, greeted by a cocktails and bubbles reception, with a selection of contemporary bowl food options served around the room including: Battered goujons of haddock with hand cut chips, crunchy tartar sauce and a juicy wedge of lemon; Moroccan chicken tagine with fragrant cous couss topped with coriander yoghurt; Thai vegetable curry with homemade polenta chips; Three bean cassoulet with fragrant rice.

Classic sports activities, including archery and boules, kept guests entertained before Sky Sports News presenter, David Garrido, hosted the awards. Across all categories, nominees selection videos were portrayed across the striking red stage and its two large screens supplied by AV projections. Taking place on International Women’s Day, tables were aptly named after Britain’s greatest female representatives, including Paula Radcliffe, Jessica Ennis-Hill and Susie Rodgers, who also presented awards alongside former England captain Faye White. Guests had the opportunity to grab a picture of themselves with not just one, but three of the most highly contested trophies in women’s sport including the FA Cup. Thanks to the black tie and trainers theme, the night finished with a dance around the room in comfortable footwear and photos at pitch-side.

On behalf of the London Sport team, I just wanted to say a massive thank you to you and your excellent team on the ground that helped us deliver our awards evening last night.

The professionalism and support provided was fantastic. Nothing was too much trouble. You really went out of your way to ensure everything worked smoothly. You were fantastic to work with. It made the evening run so smoothly as you were just brilliant.

The support from you both in the lead up to this event has been first class. You really have been so great to work with, and so helpful with all your time and support in the planning phases along with replying to emails and calls so promptly to give us all the information we need, so thank you so much for all that you did here.
CASE STUDY: SAINSBURY’S

CLIENT:
Sainsbury’s

EVENT SPACES:
Great Hall, Atrium, Venue

EVENT BRIEF:
Cross company conference for Sainsbury’s, Argos and Habitat attended by store managers and director-level employees from across the retailers’ UK-based units. The conference was attended by 700 delegates to learn and discuss the direction in which the parent company and its subsidiaries were heading.

THE EVENT:
Delegates were welcomed into a private Club Wembley reception where they were efficiently registered by Sainsbury’s event organiser. A short ride up the escalator to the managed cloakroom allowed guests to drop off any luggage and coats before mingling with their colleagues across the Venue Lower for arrival tea, coffee and warm pastries.

Delegates eager to get a picture of the pitch were able to via connecting doors before the main conference began in the Great Hall. All 700 delegates sat in cabaret style comfortably with zero-restricted views thanks to the wide set pillars in the room.

Following a second refreshment break, including brownies and cookies, delegates then split into breakout areas, including the Atrium directly below the Great Hall, allowing 350 in a cabaret layout less than a minute’s movement from the main conference. The Venue was the location for lunch allowing all guests to sit together in a separate room from the conference and breakout areas with a mixed hot and cold buffet of stone-baked pizzas, steamed dim sum and an array of salads, proving very popular with guests.

The use of corporate suites as green rooms and offices with direct access to backstage of the Great Hall added to the overall ease of hosting an event at the national stadium for the client.

I wanted to thank you and the whole team for your support and delivery of our event at Wembley stadium. Everyone really enjoyed it and thought the venue was a real wow!
