

Cumberland FA
YOUR GAME, YOUR COUNTY FA...

EQUALITY, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION POLICY STATEMENT

Equality Statement – On Behalf of Cumberland FA Directors

Cumberland FA is responsible for setting the standards and values to apply throughout football. Football is for everyone; it belongs to, and should be enjoyed by, anyone who wants to participate in it.

The aim of this policy is to ensure that everyone is treated fairly and with respect and that Cumberland FA is equally accessible to all.

All participants should abide and adhere to this Policy and to the requirements of the Equality Act 2010.

Cumberland FA's commitment is to promote inclusion and to confront and eliminate discrimination whether by reason of age, gender, gender reassignment, sexual orientation, marital status or civil partnership, race, nationality, ethnic origin, religion or belief, ability or disability, pregnancy and maternity and to encourage equal opportunities.

This policy is fully supported by the Board of Cumberland FA and the Chair, CEO and Board Equality Champion are responsible for the implementation of this policy.

Cumberland FA will ensure that it treats people fairly and with respect and that it will provide access and opportunities for all members of the community to take part in, and enjoy, its activities.

Cumberland FA will not tolerate harassment, bullying, abuse or victimization of a participant, which for the purposes of this policy and the actions and sanction applicable is regarded as discrimination, whether physical or verbal. Cumberland FA will work to ensure that such behavior is met with appropriate action in whatever context it occurs.

Cumberland FA commits itself to the immediate investigation of any allegation, when it is brought to their attention, of discrimination and where such is found to be the case, Cumberland FA will require that the practice stop and impose sanctions as appropriate.

Cumberland FA is committed to inclusion and anti-discrimination and raising awareness and educating, investigating concerns and applying relevant and proportionate sanctions, campaigning, achieving independently verified equality standards, widening diversity and representation and promoting diverse role models are all key actions to promote inclusion and eradicate discrimination within football.

John Rogerson
Chair of Cumberland FA
On behalf of The Directors of Cumberland FA Ltd
May 2023

Equality Policy

The Cumberland FA (CFA) endorses the principle of sports equality and will strive to ensure that everyone who wishes to be involved in football, whether as participants, staff and Board members, volunteers, coaches, club or league officials, or anyone associated or involved within Cumberland FA are able to, with fairness and respect.

Cumberland FA will ensure that everybody:

- has a genuine and equal opportunity to participate to the full extent of their own ambitions and abilities, without regard to their age, sex, gender identity, disability, marital or civil partnership status, pregnancy or maternity, religion, race, ethnicity or sexual orientation; and
- can be assured of an environment in which their rights, dignity and individual worth are respected, and in particular that they are able to enjoy football without the threat of intimidation, victimisation, harassment or abuse.

Legal obligations

Cumberland FA is committed to avoid and eliminate discrimination of any kind in football, and will under no circumstances condone discriminatory practices. The organisation takes a zero tolerance approach to harassment. Examples of the relevant legislation and the behaviours are given in the Appendix.

Positive action

The principle of sports equality, diversity and inclusion goes further than simply complying with legislation. It entails taking positive steps to counteract the effects of physical or cultural barriers – whether real or perceived – that restrict the opportunity for all sections of the community to participate equally and fully.

Cumberland FA will therefore seek to institute, support or contribute to appropriate measures or initiatives that enable access to football and participation in associated activities by people from any group that is under-represented in the sport or has difficulty accessing it.

Implementation

The following steps will be taken to publicise this policy and promote sports equality in football:-

- A copy of this document will be published on the CFA website.
- The Cumberland FA Chair will take overall responsibility for ensuring that the policy is observed.
- The Board will take full account of the policy in arriving at all decisions in relation to activities of the Cumberland FA.

- The Cumberland FA will collaborate fully with any surveys or other initiatives designed to assess the level of participation of different sections of the community in football and will take account of the findings in developing measures to promote and enhance sports equality in football.
- The Cumberland FA will provide access to training for all of its Board Members to raise awareness of both collective and individual responsibilities.
- It will be a condition of Cumberland FA membership that member clubs:
 - formally adopt this policy, or produce their own policy in terms that are consistent with it; and
 - take steps to ensure that their Committees, staff, members and volunteers behave in accordance with the policy, including where appropriate taking disciplinary action under the CFA's rules; and
 - ensure that access to membership is open and inclusive
 - support such measures and initiatives that Cumberland FA may institute or take part in to advance the aims of this policy.
- It will be a condition of Cumberland FA membership that individuals:
 - commit to act in accordance with this policy; and
 - support such measures and initiatives that the Cumberland FA may institute or take part in to advance the aims of this policy.

Responsibility, Monitoring and Evaluation

The Board will be responsible for ensuring the implementation of this policy.

The Board will review all Cumberland FA activities and initiatives against the aims of the policy on an annual basis, and the Chair will report formally on this issue at the AGM.

The Board, or where appropriate a designated person (Equality Champion), will review any measures or initiatives that The Cumberland FA may institute or take part in to promote and enhance equality, diversity and inclusion in the CFA, and will report their findings formally to the AGM.

The Board will review the policy itself at intervals of no more than three years, (or when necessary due to changes in legislation) and will report with recommendations to the AGM.

Complaints and compliance

Cumberland FA regards all of the forms of discriminatory behaviour, including (but not limited to) behaviour described in the Appendix as unacceptable, and is concerned to ensure that individuals feel able to raise any bona fide grievance or complaint related to such behaviour without fear of being penalised for doing so.

Appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against any employee, member or volunteer who violates this Policy.

Any person who believes that they have been treated in a way that they consider to be in breach of this policy should first complain to that person or their organisation. If this does not resolve the matter, or in the case of allegations of discriminatory behaviour against the CFA itself, the person may raise the matter by writing directly to the CEO at Ben.Snowdon@CumberlandFA.com

The CEO will investigate the complaint personally or appoint a Board member to do so. The investigation will be conducted impartially, confidentially, and without avoidable delay. Any person or organisation against whom a complaint has been made will be informed of what is alleged and given the opportunity to present their side of the matter.

The outcome of the investigation will be notified to the parties in writing and reported to the CFA Board. If the investigation reveals unacceptable discriminatory behaviour on the part of an individual member the Board may impose sanctions on that person or organisation in line with the CFA Constitution. Sanctions may range from a written reminder concerning future conduct up to and including temporary or permanent expulsion from CFA membership. In deciding what sanction is appropriate in a particular case the Board will consider the severity of the matter and take account of any mitigating circumstances.

Where the violation of this Policy by way of harassment, victimisation or discrimination amount to a criminal offence, the appropriate authority will be informed.

In the event that an individual or organisation associated with Cumberland FA is subject to allegations of unlawful discrimination in a court or tribunal, the Cumberland FA Board will co-operate fully with any investigation carried out by the relevant lawful authorities and, subject to the outcome, may consider taking action as above in relation to the matter concerned.

John Rogerson

CFA Chair

On behalf of: Cumberland FA Board of Directors

Policy Owner: Cumberland FA Board Chair

Date Last Reviewed: May 2023

Policy Review Date: May 2024

APPENDIX – Relevant legislation and forms of unacceptable discrimination

Legal rights

Discrimination has been legally defined through a series of legislative acts, including the Race Relations Act, the Sex Discrimination Act, the Disability Discrimination Act and the Equality Act 2006.

In April 2010, the Equality Act 2010 received Royal Assent. The Equality Act 2010 is a new law which harmonises where possible, and in some cases extends, protection from discrimination. It applies throughout the UK and came into force in October 2010.

Discrimination refers to unfavourable treatment on the basis of particular characteristics, which are known as the 'protected characteristics'. Under the Equality Act 2010, the protected characteristics are defined as age, disability, gender reassignment, marital or civil partnership status, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex (gender) and sexual orientation.

Under the Equality Act 2010, individuals are protected from discrimination 'on grounds of a protected characteristic'¹. This means that individuals will be protected if they have a characteristic, are assumed to have it, associate with someone who has it or with someone who is assumed to have it.

Forms of discrimination and discriminatory behaviour include the following:

Direct discrimination

Direct discrimination can be described as less favourable treatment on the grounds of one of the protected characteristics.

Indirect discrimination

Indirect discrimination occurs when a provision, criterion or practice is applied to an individual or group that would put persons of a particular characteristic at a particular disadvantage compared with other persons.

Discrimination arising from disability

When a disabled person is treated unfavourably because of something connected with their disability and this unfavourable treatment cannot be justified, this is unlawful. This type of discrimination only relates to disability.

Harassment

Harassment is defined as unwanted conduct relating to a protected characteristic that has the purpose or effect of violating a person's dignity, or which creates an intimidating or hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for that person.

¹ The exception to this is pregnancy and maternity, which does not include protection by association or assumption – a woman is only protected from discrimination on grounds of her own pregnancy.

Cumberland FA
YOUR GAME, YOUR COUNTY FA...

Victimisation

It is unlawful to treat a person less favourably because he or she has made allegations or brought proceedings under the anti-discrimination legislation, or because they have helped another person to do so. To do so would constitute victimisation.

Bullying

Bullying is defined as a form of personal harassment involving the misuse of power, influence or position to persistently criticise, humiliate or undermine an individual.