I also welcome the match officials, Ben Boardman, Craig Colquhoun, Iain Ballinger, and Mark Loughlin, whose appointment recognises their performances this season. I hope they enjoy the occasion. WICK SUNDAY

Season so far

As a new club in our first season as Wick Sunday we are delighted to be involved in the chase for silverware I don't think in our pre-season conversations myself and the other managers envisaged our rate of progression & partaking as we are.

In a season plagued with bad weather and teams crying off, we have tried to keep some level of performance by training as and when we can as we are aware tonight the opponents are going to be the best we have played so we need the highest level of performance.

Our first GFA cup game was away against Breakaways we started with a 3-6 win then onto FC Utd of Yate also away we won this game 2-10 next Bristol Allstars away in a much tighter fixture we won 0-4 still yet to play at home we had our first out of town affair with Alderton in the semi-final which we ran out 10-1 winners we are very proud of the lads and what a bunch we have managed to assemble.

BRISTOL ACADEMIA

Season so far

In the first match of the season, we drew 1-1 in a tight game with our neighbour's sportsman and then went on to have a thrilling 4-4 draw with one of our rivals Wick.

Despite a convincing 7-1 win against Lawrence Weston athletic and a win in our first match in the GFA Sunday Premier Cup, we had 3 draws and two wins in our first 5 games in the league, which was by our standard, a slow start & we knew we had to pick up the momentum in order to challenge for the title.

Subsequently, we galvanised the team & went on a hot streak with 8 convincing wins on the bounce, and we were in a very good run of form.

But then we, unfortunately, took a setback in our charge for the title with a tight 1-0 loss against our rival all stars but we were about to bounce back.

Bristol Academia are currently unbeaten in 3 games with it all going down to the final game of the season versus Wick!

In the GFA Cup, we have pushed on to the finals with a big 10-1, 6-1 & 5-1 wins & as a team, we are fully focused, excited and ready to finally lift a cup and a league title in the same season!
