County Cups Committee Board

On behalf of the Gloucestershire FA County Cups Committee Board, I would like to welcome today's teams, Bristol Boys and AC Moose and their players, club officials and supporters to Oaklands Park for this Primary Cup (South) match. I also welcome the match officials, Michael Rogers, Peter Clark, David Heath and David Gayner, whose appointment recognises their performances this season. I hope they enjoy the occasion. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the GFA staff and the County Cups Committee members for all their hard work. Their combined work is vital to the success of our cup competitions. It only remains for me to wish both teams and the match officials good luck for today's game and hope that it is a memorable occasion for you all.

Manager's Comment

Round 1 Bristol Boys faced Stoneleigh Park Rangers 1st, we swept them aside with a comfortable win, our Starboy Layton Thompson with a brace and the same for his strike partner Colton Harris.

Round 2 felt like the cup final in its own right, we faced a very strong Southmead CS Athletic Reserves side. This match was a nail biter throughout, but Bristol Boys took the lead halfway through the 2nd half through our most experienced player, Tony Hodge. Tony controlled the pace of the game, and that goal sealed him the MOTM. Southmead equalized late on taking the game all the way to penalties. Every penalty was scored up until Southmead blazed their 8th penalty over the bar. Sam Neil stepped up burying the penalty to send Bristol Boys through to the Quarter Final.

The Quarter Final was a comfortable win for the Bristol Boys, going 2-0 up with goals from Starboy Layton Thompson and the Bristol Boys Ginger Prince, Sugz. Mangotsfield getting a late goal at the end of the 1st half, but Bristol Boys restored there 2 goal advantage with a goal from the Viking, Big Jon.

The Semi Final was a huge game, we faced Made For Ever Reserves. This game was very close in the 1st half with Connor Godfrey making a superb save but Bristol Boys took the lead before HT with an excellent cross by Layton Thompson which was met by the Ginger Prince, Sugz, with an outstanding header. 1-0 up at Half Time and 45 minutes away from the Final. Layton Thompson stepped up over a free kick striking it towards the bottom corner, all the keeper could do was palm it straight to Aaron Baber to make it 2-0.

Up next, AC Moose 1st, who stand between Bristol Boys and the GFA County Cup.

Quarter-Final - 5-3 vs Lion Reserves

Semi-Final - Walkover vs Wick FC

Manager's Comment

AC Moose's first season as an 11-side club has been highly successful. We currently sit in 4th place in the league having played 11 games and won 8. Highlights include beating AJA Athletic 7-0 and 7-1, and beating feisty opposition, Bristol Wanderers, twice. We still have our eyes on promotion, with 11 games remaining and it all to play for.

The whole squad has been brilliant throughout the campaign with Aaron Cheung, Bobby Anderson, Charlie Daniels, Charlie Strickland, Chris Willows, Guy Kent, Nathan Davies, and Nathan Godwin also cup regulars. Our full season has been documented on our award winning instagram @ac_moose for more detail on our cup run.

Good luck to Bristol Boys in the final, we're looking forward to a good game. Uppa Moose!
