On behalf of the Gloucestershire FA County Cups Committee Board, I would like to welcome today's teams, Brockworth Albion and Port Of Bristol Purple and their players, club officials and supporters to Oaklands Park for this U14 Boys Cup match. I also welcome the match officials, Jason Alder, Timotej Randar, Oliver Risborough and Daniel Middlecote, whose appointment recognises their performances this season. I hope they enjoy the occasion. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the GFA staff and the County Cups Committee members for all their hard work. Their combined work is vital to the success of our cup competitions. It only remains for me to wish both teams and the match officials good luck for today's game and hope that it is a memorable occasion for you all.

Manager's Comment

In our debut season in the Sunday Avon Youth League Division one we have taken a majority of players playing from the Bristol Saturday League. We wanted tougher challenge for the team and boy have they had that this season.

We have had an excellent season in the top division, currently we are competing for the league title as well as reaching the league cup final in addition to this County cup final.

The lads are super excited to make the County Cup Final in their debut season in the top Sunday Division they have gone way beyond our expectations. They have done it the hard way seeing off 3 AYL division 1 sides on route.
