Manager's Comment

Our u15s team has enjoyed a strong 2023/24 season. Having signed a number of players at the start of the season and added a few more since, the squad has really kicked-on and have had some impressive results. All the new players have blended well with those that have been with us for longer, and the team currently sit well placed in the League and are also in the semi-finals of the League Cup! Many of the squad have been together since their u12s season, when they won the Gloucester County Girls Split-League, and the year after saw the team finish runners-up in the u13s League and reach the semi-finals of the County Cup. Last season the team won numerous tournaments, and the momentum has carried on into this season where we are enjoying a really exciting campaign.

Manager's Comment

City of Gloucester WFC U15s started their County Cup journey away at Rodborough, running out 7-2 winners. This was followed up with a 5-1 win against Downend Flyers and a semi-final 9-0 win away at St Nicholas. There have been six different goal scorers with Elizabeth Moroney scoring in every round, totalling seven goals in the County Cup so far.
