- There is no cover for professional referees, coaches and tutors/developers.
- Aggregate limit £2,000,000. This is the maximum amount that the insurer, XL Catlin, will pay per event in total under this and any other policies issued by XL Catlin.

¹ Monthly benefits means the maximum benefit payable per month which will be pro-rated depending on the period the claimant is eligible to claim for.

² Physiotherapy benefit is only payable in the event of Bodily Injury which gives rise to a claim under items 13-19)

At a glance glossary...

Accident and accidental

Means a single, sudden, unusual, and unexpected event, which occurs at an identifiable time and place during the period of insurance and effective time which causes bodily injury.

Accidental death

Death caused by accidental bodily injury and excludes death by an other cause.

Achilles Tendon

A strong tendon joining the muscles in the calf of the leg to the bone of the heel

Aggregate limit

The maximum amount that the insurer will pay per event in total under this and any other policies issued by the insurer to the insured.

Benefit period

Means the maximum (but not necessarily consecutive) period for which benefits are payable in respect of any insured person for any one accident. The benefit period commences at the end of the waiting period, if any.

Bodily injury

Injury which is caused solely by accidental means and which independently of illness or any other cause occurs within 12 months from the date of the accident.

Broken bones

A lump sum benefit is paid if an accident occurs causing bodily injury and the insured person fractures one or more of the bones listed below:

- i) Leg, ankle and foot or kneecap.
- ii) Arm or hand and wrist.
- iii) Cheek bone.
- iv) Collar bone.
- v) Jaw.
- vi) Hip.
- vii) Skull.

Concussion (long term)

Covers the insured person for forced retirement, subject to the concussion waiting period and up to but not exceeding the benefit amount stated in the policy.

The insurers will reimburse the insured person for:

- a) The actual cost incurred for a professional or trades training program in which the insured person enrolls for the purpose of obtaining an alternative source of income provided such cost is incurred no later than five (5) years after the insured person's forced retirement
- b) Medical expenses of the insured person who obtains medical treatment from a legally qualified physician, physiotherapist, psychologist or psychiatrist when recommended by qualified medical practitioner; provided such cost is incurred no later than five (5) years after the insured person's forced retirement
- c) Cost of prescription drugs and medicines prescribed by a qualified medical practitioner arising out of and related to concussion provided such cost is incurred no later than five (5) years after the insured person's forced retirement.

Reimbursement shall only be made provided expenses are:

- a) Incurred in the United Kingdom
- b) Incurred within five (5) years of the date of the insured person's forced retirement
- c) Not for elective treatment; and
- d) Supported by original receipts submitted to the Insurer as proof of claim

Concussion waiting period

Means a period of one hundred and eighty (180) days from the date of the Forced Retirement.

Cruciate ligament

Means either of the cruciate ligaments of the knee, being the Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) and the Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL). These ligaments are two strong rounded bands that extend from the head of the tibia to the intercondyloid notch of the femur.

Effective time (operative time)

The policy operates whilst at any ground or premises within the United Kingdom where there is an agreed affiliated fixture, organised training or association meeting and includes travelling directly to and from such activities.

Emergency dental (pain relief expenses)

External oral impact which results in damage to the insured person's teeth which necessitates immediate emergency pain relief. This does not cover any other procedure other than the relief of pain.

Emergency medical expenses

If an insured person incurs any additional reasonable emergency medical expenses for immediate and urgent treatment, the insurer will reimburse the insured person up to the amount shown in the policy.

Event

Means each and every individual loss or series of losses arising out of one event or one catastrophic accident during any one period of 72 hours which results in bodily injury, dismemberment, disability or death of insured persons.

Excess

An amount you pay towards a claim or that is deducted from the settlement.

disablement other than any permanent disabling injury which has lasted for at least 12 months from the date of the bodily injury and which in the insurer's chief medical officer's opinion is beyond hope of recovery and will in all probability continue for the remainder of the insured person's life and will prevent the Insured Person from engaging in or giving attention to any business, schooling, profession or occupation for which the insured person is fitted by way of education or experience for the remainder of their life.

Personal effects

The Insurer will pay the insured person up to but not exceeding the benefit amount stated for accidental loss (excluding mysterious disappearance) or destruction of or damage to the insured person's clothing or personal effects occurring within the effective time. The maximum amount payable is £100 in respect of any one insured person. The insurer will pay the insured person the value of the clothing or personal effects at the time of its loss or destruction, or the amount of the damage, or at the insurer's option will reinstate or replace such property or any part of such property.

The Insurer will not pay for:

- Any loss arising out of mysterious disappearance; or
- Any claims under £25; or
- Any amount exceeding GBP £100 per insured person; or
- For any electrical or technological items

Physiotherapy cover

If an accident occurs during the period of insurance and effective time that causes bodily injury to an insured person and directly results in a valid:

1. Temporary total disablement claim
or
 2. Broken bones claim
or
 3. Primary dislocation claim
or
 4. Snapped or ruptured achilles tendon and or cruciate ligament claim
- under this policy, the insurer will pay the insured person 75% of the costs for each session of necessary physiotherapy and/or chiropractic treatment incurred within 12 months of bodily injury, up to a maximum of £50 per visit, for total of 10 sessions provided that the Insured person has a written referral from their general practitioner for physiotherapy arising from such bodily injury.

This cover does not apply if treatment has been received by the NHS or claimed for under a current private medical insurance or any other insurance policy.
