Key Principles

As Directors of the Company you are required to behave in a manner that befits your status as a Director of Lancashire FA, a company that receives significant public and private funding. Your conduct should not bring the Company or the sport into disrepute.

As a Director, your behaviour and actions are governed by the key principles set out in this document. It is every Director's responsibility to ensure that they are familiar with, and comply with, all the relevant provisions of the Code.

The key principles upon which this Code of Conduct is based are the same 7 key principles of public service identified by the Committee on Standards in Public Life and these principles should inform your actions and decisions as a Director. They are as follows:

1. Selflessness: Directors should take decisions solely in terms of the members' and Company's interest. They should not do so in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends.
2. Integrity: Directors should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might influence them in the performance of their official duties.
3. Objectivity: In carrying out public business, including making public appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits, Directors should make choices on merit. When making decisions, whilst a Director may properly be influenced by the views of others, it is their responsibility to decide objectively, independently and in good faith what view to take, and how to vote.
4. Accountability: Directors are accountable to Lancashire FA and must exercise their powers in accordance with their legal duties (where applicable) in good faith and for the benefit of Lancashire FA, its members, shareholders, employees and the wider football family. Directors will be held accountable for their actions and part in reaching decisions, and must submit themselves to whatever scrutiny is thought to be appropriate to their office and role.
5. Transparency: Directors should be as open and transparent as possible about all the decisions and actions that they take. They should give reasons for their decisions and restrict information only when the wider members and public interest clearly demands.
6. Honesty: Directors have a duty to declare any private interests relating to their public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts of interest arising in a way that protects the public interest.
7. Leadership: Directors should promote and support these principles by leadership and example, always acting in such a way as to preserve confidence in Lancashire FA. You must not knowingly misrepresent the views or policies of Lancashire FA.

Breach

Any breach of the Code of Conduct and Ethics, brought to the attention of the Chair or Chief Executive Officer ('CEO'), will be considered under the compliance disciplinary procedures, which can be found in '8. Appendix 1 – Procedure in the Event of an Alleged Breach'. You should also ensure that that you notify the Chair of any violation of this code by any other person governed by this Code of Conduct and Ethics. In accordance with the Articles and the Standing Orders, a breach of this Code may result in removal from office.

1. Conduct and Behaviours

Directors should have the values of Lancashire FA in mind at all times when conducting themselves:

Values | Lancashire FA's Behaviour Framework:

A Director must not act in a way that unjustifiably favours or discriminates against particular individuals or interests. In the event that an individual alleged to be in breach of the Code is an employee of Lancashire FA (including the CEO) the relevant disciplinary processes as set out in the employee's contract and the Association's Disciplinary Policy shall be followed in the first instance.

In the event that an individual alleged to be in breach of the Code is a Participant (pursuant to the Rules as amended from time to time), the relevant disciplinary processes as set out in the Rules shall be followed in the first instance.

Nothing shall prevent any action being taken pursuant to the Code of Conduct or these procedures following the instigation of an employment or Rules-related disciplinary process.

Where there are reasonable grounds to suspect that an individual has breached the Code, all relevant evidence shall be passed to the CEO. Where the allegation is against the CEO, the relevant evidence should be passed to the Chair or a Board Director designated by the Chair ('designated person'). The CEO (or designated person) shall then as soon as reasonably practicable commence a four-part process:

- 8.1 - Decision on whether there should be an Interim Suspension or other appropriate interim action;
- 8.2 - Investigation and Recommendation;
- 8.3 - Decision and Sanction; and
- 8.4 - Appeal Process.

Each part of the process is more particularly described in paragraphs 8.1 to 8.4 below. Where considered appropriate, the Chair and a Vice-Chair or other Board Director may jointly agree to vary the process set out in paragraphs 8.1 to 8.3, and the Chair may vary the Appeal Process set out in paragraph 8.4 (except where the Chair or the relevant Vice-Chair is the subject of an ongoing disciplinary process). A variation to the process may include, but shall not be limited to, a person other than the CEO/designated person, or together with the CEO/designated person, leading the process as described below.

All parties involved in an investigation and related proceedings shall act in a spirit of cooperation to ensure that proceedings are conducted expeditiously, fairly and appropriately.

Any such power shall only be exercised in consultation with the Chair (or in the event that the Chair is the subject of the disciplinary process a suitable alternative that is agreed by the Vice-Chair). A non-exhaustive list of factors to be considered when reaching this decision include:
- The strength of the evidence available;
 - The seriousness of the alleged breach;
 - Whether there are any relevant safety or welfare concerns to be considered; and
 - Whether the individual is to fulfil any duties on Association business prior to a final decision being reached.

8.2 Investigation and Recommendation: The CEO/designated person shall carry out an investigation into all alleged breaches of the Code, which shall include (where practicable) giving the individual an opportunity to answer any allegations made. The CEO/designated person shall be entitled to request any reasonable support in conducting the investigation including, for example but without limitation, the appointment of a third party to assist in the investigation. The CEO/designated person or the alternative competent investigator assisting the CEO/designated person in the investigation will interview the individual and any witnesses to produce statements, which will be used in the formation of the recommendation. At the end of any investigation, the CEO/designated person shall consult with the Chair (or if the Chair is the subject of the disciplinary process a suitable alternative that is agreed by the Board (as appropriate) and then provide a written report (the 'Report') to the individual which shall include the following:

- (a) Details of which section(s) of the Code are alleged to have been breached;
- (b) Details of relevant evidence to support the allegation(s); and
- (c) The CEO/designated person's conclusion on whether there is sufficient evidence for the matter to proceed.

Upon receipt of the Report from the CEO/ designated person, the individual shall be granted a reasonable opportunity to provide any further written submissions that they may wish to put forward prior to a final decision being reached by the 'Deciding Panel' (see 8.3 below).

8.3 Decision and Sanction: The Chair (or if the Chair is the subject of the disciplinary process a suitable alternative that is agreed by the Vice-Chair) shall constitute a 'Deciding Panel' which shall comprise of at least two members and may include the Chair, the Vice-Chair, the Senior Independent Director or other persons (including persons independent from Lancashire FA). - (i) Whether a breach may have occurred;
- (ii) The severity of the breach; and/or
- (iii) If relevant, an appropriate sanction.

8.3.2 The individual against whom the allegations are made shall have the opportunity to appear before the Deciding Panel if so requested by the individual. The Deciding Panel may also request that the individual appear before it if the Deciding Panel consider this to be necessary and appropriate. The individual may choose to be accompanied by a representative, who is not a Lancashire FA staff member (including the CEO, Board of Directors or any workforce). If the individual chooses to have formal legal representation, this shall not be at Lancashire FA's cost.

8.3.3 The Deciding Panel may speak directly with a complainant or witness or other persons as it may choose.

8.3.4 The Deciding Panel shall collectively decide, after considering the Report provided by the CEO/designated person, together with any written or oral submissions by the individual, complainant and any witnesses as well as the views of any third party whose guidance is sought, whether there has been a proven breach of the Code, and on any appropriate

- sanction.
- 8.3.5 The Deciding Panel shall consider the admissibility of anonymous evidence on a case by case basis in the context of the fairness of the proceedings as a whole and on the assumption that such anonymous evidence shall only be admissible in exceptional circumstances. In doing so, the Deciding Panel shall consider the significance of such evidence (for example, if the evidence is new or is available from other sources) and the reason(s) for the witness wishing to provide the evidence anonymously.
- 8.3.6 In reaching a decision the Deciding Panel shall apply the civil standard of proof being 'the balance of probabilities'.
- 8.3.7 The following non-exhaustive list of matters may be taken into account when considering the appropriate sanction:
- The severity of the breach of the Code;
 - The manner in which the individual has acted following the alleged breach, including, for example, the manner in which the individual has co-operated with the investigation;
 - Any other mitigating factors; and
 - Whether the individual can continue to represent Lancashire FA, including fulfilling his/her duties on the Board, or on any Lancashire FA Committee(s) with integrity and credibility.
- 8.3.8 Available sanctions may include, but are not limited to, any one or more of: a warning, censure, suspension of any nature and duration or removal from office. The factors that the Deciding Panel shall consider when determining the appropriate sanction are set out in paragraph 8.3.7 above.
- 8.3.9 The individual shall be notified of the decision in writing with reasons.
- 8.4 Appeal Process: The individual may appeal against any finding that they have breached the Code, and/or against any sanction imposed following such a finding.
- 8.4.1 The notice of an appeal must be lodged with the Chair within 14 days of notification of the decision appealed against.
- 8.4.2 The notice of appeal must:
- (a) Identify the specific decision(s) being appealed;
 - (b) Set out the grounds of appeal;
 - (c) Set out a statement of all of the facts and submissions upon which the appeal is based; and
 - (d) Confirm whether the individual requests an oral hearing.
- 8.4.3 The available grounds of appeal shall be only that:
- (a) The Deciding Panel misinterpreted or failed to comply with the Code or any rules or regulations relevant to its decision;
 - (b) New evidence has come to light that was not available at the time of the original hearing, and there are exceptional circumstances as to why it was not presented at the original hearing. Save in exceptional circumstances, the Appeal Board shall not grant leave to present new evidence unless satisfied with the reason given as to why it was not, or could not have been, presented at the original hearing and that such evidence is relevant.
 - (c) The Deciding Panel came to a decision to which no reasonable such body could have arrived at; and/or
 - (d) The Deciding Panel issued a sanction which is excessive.

- 8.4.4 The Appeal shall be considered and finally determined by the Chair unless
- i) The Chair has been a member of the Deciding Panel in which case the appeal shall be considered by a nominee of the Chair; or
 - ii) The appellant specifically requests that the appeal is determined by an Appeals Panel, in which case the Chair shall constitute such an Appeals Panel and the provisions of paragraphs 8.3 and 8.3.1 of this procedure shall apply.

In the event that an oral hearing is requested:

- (a) The Chair shall have the right to appoint other persons to act as their advisers during the hearing. Such persons shall not, however, vote on the final decision which shall be the Chair's.
 - (b) The Chair may adopt such procedures as they consider appropriate and expedient for the just determination of any appeal, and shall not be bound by any enactment or rule of law relating to the admissibility of evidence in proceedings before a court of law.
 - (c) The individual appearing before the Chair may be accompanied by a representative (as per paragraph 8.3.2 above). Any such representative shall not be permitted to give evidence as a witness. The Chair may, in their discretion, appoint any person (who shall not be a professional legal adviser) ('the Respondent') to present the case against the individual. The Chair may also proceed in the absence of any party, unless they are satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for the failure of the party to attend, and shall do so in such manner as they consider appropriate.
- 8.4.5 Following consideration of the submissions of the parties (whether at an oral hearing or in writing), together with all documentary evidence presented, the Chair may:
- (a) Allow or dismiss the appeal;
 - (b) Remit the matter to be considered again by the Deciding Panel;
 - (c) Exercise any power which the Deciding Panel could have exercised; or
 - (d) Make any further or other order considered appropriate, either generally, or for the purpose of giving effect to their decision.
- 8.4.6 In the event that the Chair is the subject of the disciplinary procedures, the Vice-Chair shall be responsible for the application of the relevant procedures set out in 8.4 and the notice of appeal shall be lodged with the CEO.

8.5 Confidentiality/Publication of proceedings:

- 8.5.1 Subject to paragraph 8.5.2 below, the investigation and any related proceedings shall be confidential between Lancashire FA and the individual concerned.
