

Equality Policy

Leicestershire & Rutland County Football Association Ltd

Foreword by the Chair

The Leicestershire and Rutland County Football Association are fully committed to ensuring that everyone can take part in football across the Leicestershire and Rutland in an enjoyable, friendly, safe and inclusive environment. The Board of Directors, CEO and staff believe that everyone should have the opportunity to be part of the football family, regardless of difference and we are working hard to ensure that this is a reality.

Our Equality Policy below confirms our clear commitment to promoting equality of opportunity and that we will take firm action, if required, against anyone who behaves in a way that is discriminatory.

Professor Surinder Sharma DL
Chair, Leicestershire and Rutland County Football Association

Policy Statement

Leicestershire and Rutland County FA endorses the principle of equality in sport and will strive to ensure that everyone who wishes to be involved in football, as participants, team members, volunteers, coaches, referees, office-bearers or those within the County Football Association. We will ensure that everyone involved in football:

- Has a genuine equal opportunity to participate to the full extent of their own ambitions and abilities, without regard to their age, sex, gender reassignment, disability, marital or civil partnership status, pregnancy or maternity, religion or belief, race (which includes colour, nationality and ethnic or national origins) or sexual orientation;
- Can be assured of an environment in which their rights, dignity and respect and individual worth are respected, and in particular that they are able to enjoy football without the threat of intimidation, victimisation, bullying, harassment, abuse or discrimination.

Legal obligations

Leicestershire and Rutland County FA is committed to reducing and eliminating unfair discrimination of any kind in football, and will under no circumstances condone any unlawful discriminatory practices. The organisation takes a zero tolerance approach to any form of bullying, harassment and abuse. Examples of the relevant legislation and the behaviours in question are given in the Additional Notes at the end of this Appendix.

Positive action

The principle of equality goes further than simply complying with legislation. It allows the Leicestershire and Rutland County FA to take positive steps to counteract the effects of physical or cultural barriers – whether real or perceived – that restrict the opportunity for all sections of our diverse community to participate equally and fully in football should they chose to do so.

Leicestershire and Rutland County FA will therefore seek to institute positive measures, support or contribute to appropriate measures or initiatives that enable access to football and participation in associated activities by people from any group that is currently under-represented in the sport or has difficulty accessing it.

Implementation

The following steps will be taken to publicise this policy and promote equality, diversity and inclusion in football:

- A copy of this document will be published on our website.
- The Board of Leicestershire and Rutland County FA will take overall responsibility for ensuring that the policy is observed.
- The Board of Leicestershire and Rutland County FA will take full account of the policy in arriving at all decisions in relation to activities of the County FA.
- County FA will collaborate fully with any relevant surveys or other initiatives designed to assess the level of participation of different sections of the community in football and will take account of the findings in developing measures to promote and enhance equality for all involved in football.
- Leicestershire and Rutland County FA Board, staff and Council members will undertake equality training and keep up to date with equality legislation.
- It will be a condition of Leicestershire and Rutland County FA affiliation that member clubs:
 - Formally adopt this policy, or produce their own equality, diversity and inclusion policy in terms that are consistent with it;
 - Take steps to ensure that their Committees, membership, players, coaches and volunteers are reflective of the diversity communities and behave and themselves in accordance with the policy, including where appropriate taking disciplinary action under the Club's constitution;
 - Ensure that access to membership is open and inclusive;
 - Support such measures and initiatives that Leicestershire and Rutland County FA may institute or take part in to advance the aims of this policy.
- It will be a condition of Leicestershire and Rutland County FA affiliation that individuals and members:
 - Commit to act in accordance with this policy;
 - Support such measures and initiatives that Leicestershire and Rutland County FA may institute or take part in to advance the aims of this policy.

Responsibility, Monitoring and Evaluation

The Board will be responsible for ensuring the implementation of this policy.

The Board will review all Leicestershire and Rutland County FA activities and initiatives against the aims of the policy on an annual basis, and the Chair will report formally on this issue at the AGM.

The Board, or where appropriate a Inclusion Advisory Group Chair (who will be a Board member), will review any measures or initiatives that Leicestershire and Rutland County FA may institute or take part in to promote equality in football across the County and will report their findings formally to the AGM annually.

The Board will review the policy annually (or more regularly due to changes in legislation) and will report with recommendations to the AGM.

Complaints and compliance

Leicestershire and Rutland County FA regards all of the forms of discriminatory behaviour, including (but not limited to) behaviour described in the Appendix as unacceptable, and wants to ensure that individuals feel able to raise any bona fide grievance or complaint related to any such behaviour without fear of being penalised for doing so.

Appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against any employee, Board or Council member, player, coach, referee or volunteer who breaches the County FA Equality Policy and the provisions of the Equality Act, 2010.

Any person who believes that they have been treated in a way that they consider to be in breach of this policy by a member club, individual, staff, Board or Council member should follow the County FA's complaints procedure. Anyone wishing to make a complaint should first complain to that person, organisation or club. If this does not resolve the matter, or in the case of allegations of discriminatory behaviour against Leicestershire and Rutland County FA staff, Board or Council members, the person may raise the matter by writing directly to the Chair. Please send all written correspondence to the office address.

The Chair will investigate the complaint personally or appoint a Board member(s) to do so. The investigation will be conducted impartially, confidentially, and without avoidable delay. Any person or organisation against whom a complaint has been made will be informed of what is alleged and given the opportunity to present their side of the matter.

The outcome of the investigation will be notified to the parties in writing and reported to the Leicestershire and Rutland County FA Board. If the investigation reveals unacceptable discriminatory behaviour on the part of an individual or member club the Board may impose sanctions on that person or organisation in line with Leicestershire and Rutland County FA's Constitution. Sanctions may range from a written reminder concerning future conduct up to and including temporary or permanent suspension and expulsion from the County FA and any club or league that affiliates to it. In deciding what sanction is appropriate in a particular case the Board will consider the severity of the matter and take account of any mitigating circumstances.

Where the violation of the Equality Policy by way of bullying, harassment, victimisation or discrimination amount to a criminal offence, the Police or appropriate Authority will be informed.

In the event that an individual, club or league associated with Leicestershire and Rutland County FA is subject to allegations of unlawful discrimination in a court or tribunal, Leicestershire and Rutland County FA will co-operate fully with any investigation carried out by the relevant lawful authorities and, subject to the outcome, may consider taking further action in relation to the matter concerned.

Legal rights

Discrimination has been legally defined through a series of legislative acts, including the Race Relations Act, the Sex Discrimination Act, the Disability Discrimination Act and the Equality Act 2006.

In April 2010, the Equality Act 2010 received Royal Assent. The Equality Act 2010 is a law which harmonises where possible, and in some cases extends, protection from discrimination. It applies throughout the UK and came into force in October 2010.

Discrimination refers to less favorable treatment on the basis of particular characteristics, which are known as the 'protected characteristics'. Under the Equality Act 2010, the protected characteristics are defined as age, disability, gender reassignment, marital or civil partnership status, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex (gender) and sexual orientation.

Under the Equality Act 2010, individuals are protected from discrimination 'on grounds of' a protected characteristic. This means that individuals will be protected if they have a characteristic, are assumed to have it, associate with someone who has it or with someone who is assumed to have it.

Forms of discrimination and discriminatory behaviour include the following:

Direct discrimination

Direct discrimination can be described as less favourable treatment on the grounds of one of the protected characteristics.

Indirect discrimination

Indirect discrimination occurs when a provision, criterion or practice is applied to an individual or group that would put persons of a particular characteristic at a particular disadvantage compared with other persons.

Discrimination arising from disability

When a disabled person is treated unfavourably because of something connected with their disability and this less favourable treatment cannot be justified, this is unlawful. This type of discrimination only relates to disability.

Harassment

Harassment is defined as unwanted conduct relating to a protected characteristic that has the purpose or effect of violating a person's dignity, or which creates an intimidating or hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for that person.

Victimisation

It is unlawful to treat a person less favourably because they have made allegations or brought proceedings under the anti-discrimination legislation, or because they have helped another person to do so. To do so would constitute victimisation.

Bullying

Bullying is defined as a form of personal harassment involving the misuse of power, influence or position to persistently criticise, humiliate or undermine an individual.

¹ The exception to this is pregnancy and maternity, which does not include protection by association or assumption – an individual is only protected from discrimination on grounds of their own pregnancy.
