

LINCOLNSHIRE FA

Youth Council Newsletter

Women's World Cup 2023

Australia and New Zealand

- The tournament is taking place between 20th July and 20th August 2023 in Australia and New Zealand.
- 32 teams from across the world will take part in the tournament.
- The United States of America are reigning champions having won the last 2 tournaments in 2019 and 2015.

Meet the England Lionesses:

- Coming into the tournament as European Champions, hopes are high for the England team.
- Without Arsenal's Leah Williamson through injury, Chelsea's Millie Bright will take on the captaincy.
- The Lionesses play their first group game on Saturday 22nd July against Haiti, you can watch the game at 10:30 am.

Make your Women's World Cup Predictions!

I think _____ will win the tournament!

I think England will reach the _____ stage!

I think the golden boot winner will be _____!

I think the final will be _____ against _____

Design your own Women's World Cup 5-a-side team!

Pick your 5 favourite players from the teams playing at the Women's World Cup!

Who will make your team?

Match the flag to the country playing at the WWC 2023

USA

AUSTRALIA

SWEDEN

ENGLAND

GERMANY

