ABOUT LCFA SEFTON CIC

Liverpool County FA Sefton (LCFA Sefton) CIC is a not-for-profit organisation responsible for the management and operation of community football facilities in Sefton, Liverpool.

LCFA Sefton CIC is a subsidiary of Liverpool County FA (LCFA) Limited, one of the most prestigious County FAs in the country, serving in excess of 55,000 players, 500 clubs and 3,500 teams.

As the governing body of the game across Merseyside, LCFA is responsible for delivering a positive football experience for grassroots and semi-professional football.

This is an exciting time for LCFA Sefton CIC, with planning permission and significant investment in place to deliver wholesale improvements to the existing community facilities in Thornton, Liverpool. Upon completion in May 2022, the site will become a state-of-the-art community hub – one of the first in Sefton.

Consisting of high-quality natural turf and artificial grass pitches, as well as indoor studio, meeting and function space, our facilities support the local grassroots football family and wider community.
