

What is good about playing football?

What's not so good about playing football?

If you had a magic wand what would you change about playing football?

