APPOINTING CLUB AND LEAGUE WELFARE OFFICERS (OPEN-AGE ADULT DISABILITY FOOTBALL TEAMS)

All The FA Guidance Notes referred to in this document are available by clicking here.

THE ROLE

With the support of the relevant Committee – and working closely with other Welfare Officers in the Club or League – the Welfare Officer should:

- Become familiar with Guidance Notes 10.1: Safeguarding Adults in Open-age Adult Disability Football;
- Ensure the club adopts The FA's Safeguarding Adults: Policy and Procedures' Template (Guidance Notes 10.5);
- Complete The FA's 'Safeguarding Adults' free online course (see Guidance Notes 10.4):
- Sit on the committee and put safeguarding adults on every agenda;
- Communicate the Safeguarding Adults Policy throughout the club/league;
- Promote safeguarding awareness and encourage relevant people to complete The FA's 'Safeguarding Adults' free online course (see Guidance Notes 10.4):

- Review existing practices and strengthen as necessary;
- Promote a culture that empowers, listens to and consults with all members;
- Attend any network meetings hosted by the County FA for Welfare Officers (Adult Disability Teams);
- Work collaboratively with the County FA Designated Safeguarding Officer;
- Ensure everyone knows how to recognise and report safeguarding concerns;
- Address poor practice in a consistent way, track repeated incidents and seek advice from the County FA Designated Safeguarding Officer as required;
- Report any allegations or suspicions that an adult is at risk in a swift and effective way;
- Follow Guidance Notes 5.2: Welfare Officers' Code of Conduct.

In addition, clubs and leagues must ensure that where there are under-18s in adult open-age disability teams and that the guidance for all adult open-age football is followed. For more information on this, please see Appendix 5 in Guidance Notes 10.1: Safeguarding Adults in Open-Age Disability Football.

THE RECOMMENDATION

Appointing a Welfare Officer (Adult Disability Teams) and following the above steps above are strongly recommended. The appointment may become mandatory in the future.

SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE

The role is best suited to someone who:

- Believes safeguarding adults is important;
- Is a good communicator;
- Has time to listen to people;
- Has a common-sense approach;
- Understands the rights of adults;
- Is willing to provide two references;
- Is willing to learn and seek advice.

THE RECRUITMENT PROCESS

An open recruitment process is often the best:

- An open recruitment process is often the best:
- Make it known you wish to appoint a Club or League Welfare Officer (Adult Disability Teams) – for example, communicate this on the club website;

- Provide clear information about the role;
- Ask if anyone in the club/league has any experience or training in safeguarding adults;
- Ensure you have a fair and open recruitment process in line with your club constitution and rules;
- Use the volunteer application form in Guidance Notes 10.8: Safer Recruitment of Volunteers in Open-age Adult Disability Football.

Please note: The FA is currently considering the circumstances in which DBS Checks are, or may be, required for people working with adults in open-age adult disability football. Further guidance will be provided in due course.

Club Welfare Officer (Adult Disability Teams) must have a DBS Check if there are under-18s in the open-age adult disability team(s). For more about DBS Checks for those working with under-18s, please see Appendix 5 in Guidance Notes 10.1: Safeguarding Adults in Open-Age Disability Football.
