

TO BE INVOLVED WITHIN FOOTBALL, YOU MAY REQUIRE CERTAIN QUALIFICATIONS TO ENSURE EVERYONE REMAINS SAFE IN THE ENVIRONMENT THEY'RE IN. TAKE A LOOK FOR EACH ROLE...

CLUB WELFARE OFFICER

A Club Welfare Officer is in place to enable coaches, players and parents have a place to voice their concerns and report any issues they may have, helping the club to demonstrate a 'duty of care'.

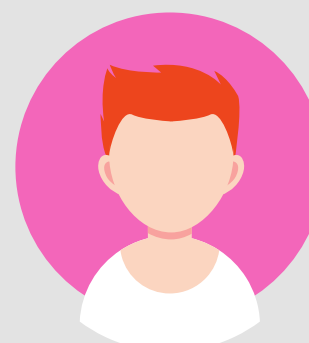

COURSES REQUIRED

FA Safeguarding Children Qualification

FA Welfare Officer Course

REFEREES

Referees are required to complete Safeguarding Qualifications prior to refereeing. This is so they have a basis understanding should they come across any situations that need attention.

COURSES REQUIRED

FA Safeguarding Children Qualification

Safeguarding For All Course

LEVEL ONE COACH

To become a qualified FA Level One coach, individuals must complete the FA Level One coaching course. This gives you the basic understanding and elements of coaching the game.

COURSES REQUIRED

FA Safeguarding Children Qualification

Level 1 Football Coaching Course

CLUB COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Clubs are required to form a Club Committee with various positions such as Welfare Officer, Treasurer, Chairman and Secretary to enable the smooth running and sustainability of the club.

COURSES REQUIRED

FA Safeguarding for Committee Members

LEAD PLAYMAKER

A Lead Playmaker leads volunteer roles at your club or within FA participation programmes, such as Wildcats and JustPlay. The course gives an introduction in to the leading of fun, safe and inclusive sessions.

FA Safeguarding Children Qualification

FA Playmaker Qualification

CLUB PLAYMAKERS

A Club Playmaker assists with sessions within a club environment. They need asked to complete the FA Playmaker Course to learn the basic elements of coaching.

COURSES REQUIRED

FA Playmaker Qualification