Awards Dinner 2018

On 9 May 2018, the RAF Football Association held their Annual Awards Evening at Halton House Officers Mess. The event was attended by nearly 100 members of the Association and invited guests, including the President of RAF Football, Air Chief Marshal Sir Stephen Hillier, Chief of the Air Staff. Guests included Mr Bob Cotter from the English Football Association and a number of key supporters of RAF Football, including the sponsors of the dinner, SecureCloud+.

The pinnacle of the evening was the presenting of awards to recognise excellent and reward achievement from across a broad array of Association activity. The award recipients were as follows:

Senior Representative Team Player of the Season – Cpl Tom Claisse

Ladies Representative Team Player of the Season – SAC Rachael Rutherford

Men's Development Squad Player of the Season – SAC(T) Ross Glibbery – collected by Elliot Smith (Runner Up) due to SAC Glibbery being deployed.

Veterans Player of the Season (Charlie Booker Memorial Shield) Sgt Mark Rooney

RAF FA Grass Roots Football Award – FS Steve Harrison

Life Time Achievement Award –Mr John Duff

Life Time Achievement Award - Mr John Jones

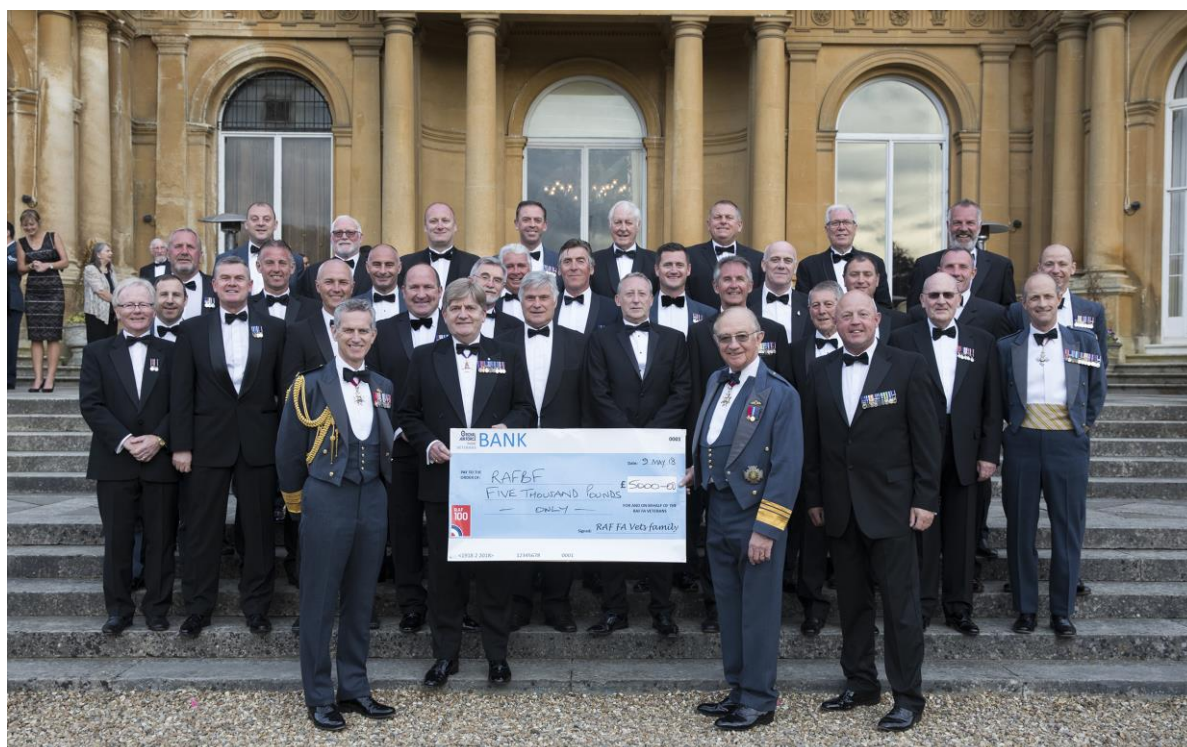

In addition to the individual awards, the RAF Football Association were also presented with the FA Equality Standard, which CAS received on behalf of RAF Football from Mr Bob Cotter.

Additionally, Flt Lt Scott Hyndman was presented with the Middlesex Cup, which Icarus FC (the RAF Officers' team) won this season.

The awards evening was also an excellent opportunity for the Veterans Team to present a cheque for £5,000 to the RAF Benevolent Fund, which they have been raising throughout the season as part of their RAF 100 celebrations.
