ABOUT STAFFORDSHIRE FA

Founded In 1877, The Staffordshire Football Association Is The Guardian Of Our National Game In The County.

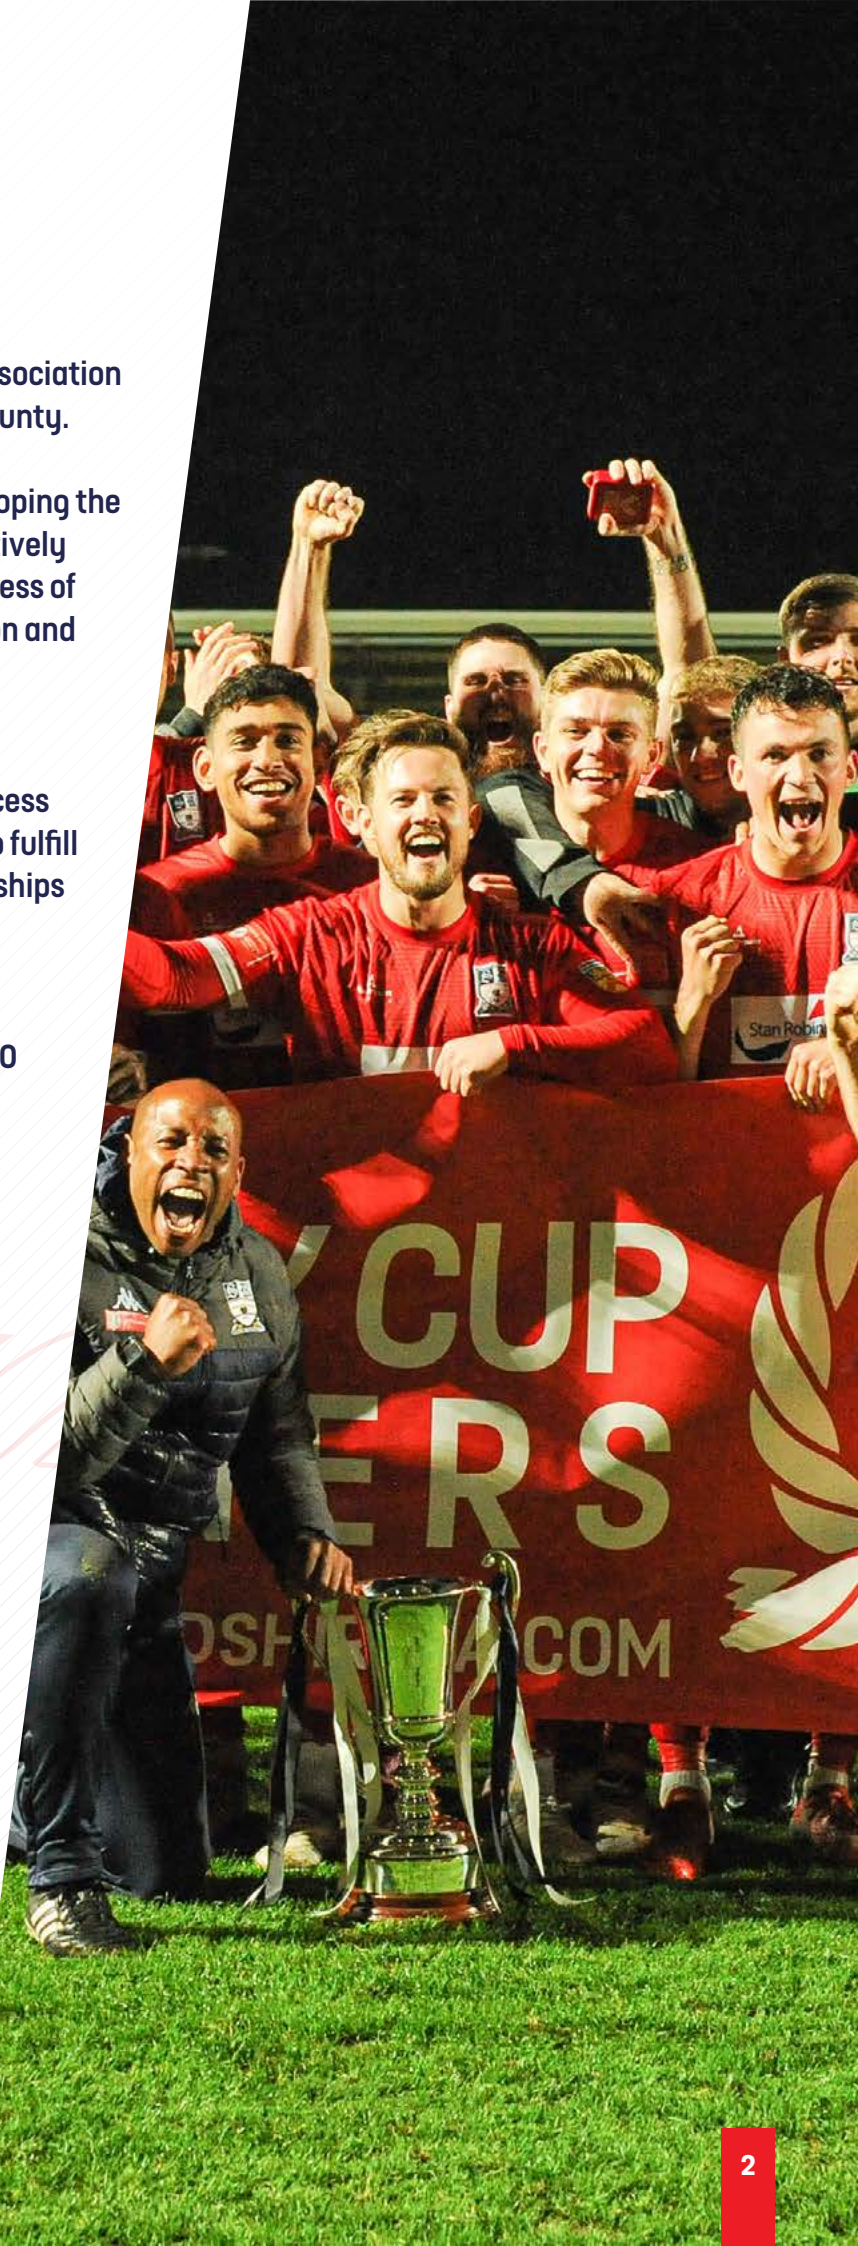

Responsible for efficiently governing and developing the local game, the Staffordshire FA strives to positively influence participation for all in football regardless of age, ability, sex, sexual orientation, race, religion and socioeconomic status.

Our aim is to make a positive difference within football, giving everyone the opportunity to access quality football opportunities and experience to fulfill their potential. We are keen to develop partnerships in order to promote the benefits of football and improve the facilities where football is played.

With over 1,700 teams, 30,000 players and 800 referees, Staffordshire FA is responsible for providing a support structure that enables players, volunteers, coaches and referees to develop individually or as part of a Club or League and most importantly, participate in a safe and enjoyable environment. We are a progressive County FA who celebrate our history and traditions but we do not dwell on them. We are a dynamic, fast moving and evolving organisation which is passionate about our sport and its long term success.

To positively represent your designated area;

- To debate issues, reflecting the views of those whom you represent, but to act in the best interests of The Staffordshire FA

- To accurately and positively disseminate information from Council to all other Staffordshire FA Registered Players in the Disability Pathway (having regard to any confidential information which is provided to you)

2. To serve on Boards, committees, sub-committees and working groups:

- To attend meetings of Council and other committees, sub-committees and working groups on which you serve

- To participate constructively in and positively promote the good governance of The Staffordshire FA

- To provide relevant expertise, skill and knowledge

- To contribute to debate and the decision-making process in order to resolve issues and further develop the game

3. To act in an ambassadorial role at local events

- To conduct yourself in a manner which preserves the good reputation of The Staffordshire FA

- To avoid situations which are likely to bring yourself and / or The Staffordshire FA into disrepute

4. To always act in accordance with the provisions of The Staffordshire FA's Code of Conduct

SKILLS, KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE

FOOTBALL

The following attributes are desirable for all roles, with additional specific attributes on the following page:

- A broad knowledge of the issues and the aspirations of the body that you represent
- An understanding of the SFA Strategy "Uniting the Knot"
- A sound understanding of the modern game of football in its various forms and of the structures and processes within football
- The ability to clearly and articulately represent the views of those that you represent
- The ability to report back to constituents, either verbally or in writing, in a timely manner that can be easily understood
- The ability to speak, present and network in an ambassadorial role
- The ability to mix with diverse groups of people in a wide variety of situations
- The ability to build and maintain productive working relationships with others (including fellow Council Members, Staffordshire FA Staff and colleagues from across the football family)
- The ability to challenge the present to build the future, whilst always being respectful of the views and the knowledge and experience of others
- The FA's Safeguarding Children Workshop
- The Safeguarding for Committee Members Workshop
- A willingness to act in the best interests of The Staffordshire FA without regard to personal interest or benefit

Time Commitment

The level of commitment Council Members are required to make largely depends on the number of committees / working groups to which they are appointed.

As a minimum, Council Members should attend each meeting of Council, of which there are usually 3 per Council year. Meetings are usually on a weekday evening, but the occasional daytime meetings also take place usually at the Staffordshire Football Association Headquarters Dyson Court.
