SUFFOLK COUNTY FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

Policy Statement

As the governing body of the game for the County of Suffolk, Suffolk Football Association is responsible for setting standards and values to apply throughout the game at every level. Football is For All and should be enjoyed by anyone who wants to participate in it.

All participants should abide and adhere to this policy and to the requirements of the Equality Act 2010.

The Equality Policy has been created to provide a framework for the Suffolk FA to implement an agreed set of guidelines that ensures that everyone has equal access to opportunities to participate in Suffolk football. The aim of this policy is to ensure that everyone is treated fairly and with respect, and that people from all backgrounds can participate in Suffolk FA's activities and make use of its services free from discrimination.

Suffolk FA endorses the principle of sports equality and will strive to ensure that everyone who wishes to be involved in football, whether as participants, team members, volunteers, coaches, referee's, office-bearers, or those within the County Football Association. We will ensure that everyone involved in football:

- Has a genuine and equal opportunity to participate to the full extent of their own ambitions and abilities, without regard to their age, sex, gender identity, disability, marital or civil partnership status, pregnancy or maternity, religion, race or ethnicity or sexual orientation: and
- Can be assured of an environment in which their rights, dignity and individual worth are respected, and that they are able to enjoy football without the threat of intimidation, victimisation, harassment, or abuse.

Suffolk FA is committed to promoting equality by recognising that inequalities may exist, and as a result will take positive action to address any such inequalities.

Legal obligations

Suffolk County FA is committed to avoiding and eliminating unfair discrimination of any kind in football and will under no circumstances condone unlawful discriminatory practices. The organisation takes a zero-tolerance approach to harassment. Examples of the relevant legislation and the behaviours in question are given in the appendix.

Positive action

The principle of equality goes further than simply complying with legislation. It allows the SFA to take positive steps to counteract the effects of physical or cultural barriers – whether real or perceived – that restrict the opportunity for all sections of the community to participate equally and fully in football should they chose to.

Suffolk FA will therefore seek to institute, support, or contribute to appropriate measures or initiatives that enable access to football and participation associated activities by people from any age group that is underrepresented in the sport or has difficulty accessing it.

Complaints and compliance

Suffolk FA regards all the forms of discriminatory behaviour, including (but not limited to) behaviour described in the Appendix as unacceptable, and is concerned to ensure that individuals feel able to raise any bona fide grievance or complaint related to such behaviour without fear of being penalised for doing so.

Appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against any employee, Board or Council member, player, coach, referee, or volunteer who breaches the Suffolk FA Equality Policy.

Any person who believes that he or she or they have been treated in a way that they consider to be in breach of this policy by a member club, individual, staff, Board or Council member should follow the Suffolk FA's complaints procedure. Anyone wishing to make a complaint should first complain to that person, organisation, or club. If this does not resolve the matter, or in the case of allegations of discriminatory behaviour against Suffolk FA staff, Board or Council members, this person may raise the matter by writing directly to the Chairman via the office address - Bill Steward House, The Buntings, Stowmarket, IP14 5GZ.

The Chairman will investigate the complaint personally or appoint a Board member to do so. The investigation will be conducted impartially, confidentially, and without avoidable delay. Any person or organisation against whom a complaint has been made will be informed of what is alleged and given the opportunity to present their side of the matter.

The outcome of the investigation will be notified to the parties in writing and reported to the Suffolk FA Board. If the investigation reveals unacceptable discriminatory behaviour on the part of an individual or member club the Board may impose sanctions on that person or organisation in line with Suffolk FA's Constitution. Sanctions may range from a written reminder concerning future conduct up to and including temporary or permanent suspension and expulsion from the County FA and any club or league that affiliates it. In deciding what sanction is appropriate in a particular case the Board will consider the severity of the matter and take account of any mitigating circumstances.

Where the violation of the Equality Policy by way of harassment, victimisation, or discrimination amounts to a criminal offence, the police or appropriate authority will be informed.

In the event that an individual, club or league associated with Suffolk FA is subject to allegations of unlawful discrimination in a court or tribunal, Suffolk FA will co-operate fully with any investigation carried out by the relevant lawful authorities and subject to the outcome, may consider taking further action in relation to the matter concerned.

APPENDIX – Relevant legislation and forms of unacceptable discrimination

Legal rights

Discrimination has been legally defined through a series of legislative acts, including the Race Relations Act, the Sex Discrimination Act, the Disability Discrimination Act and the Equality Act 2006.

In April 2010, the Equality Act 2010 received Royal Assent. The Equality Act 2010 is a new law which harmonises where possible, and in some cases extends, protection from discrimination. It applies throughout the UK and came into force in October 2010.

Discrimination refers to unfavourable treatment on the basis of particular characteristics, which are known as the 'protected characteristics'.

Under the Equality Act 2010, the protected characteristics are defined as age, disability, gender reassignment, marital or civil partnership status, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex (gender) and sexual orientation. Under the Equality Act 2010, individuals are protected from discrimination 'on grounds of' a protected characteristic¹. This means that individuals will be protected if they have a characteristic, are assumed to have it, associate with someone who has it or with someone who is assumed to have it.

Forms of discrimination and discriminatory behaviour include the following:

Direct discrimination

Direct discrimination can be described as less favourable treatment on the grounds of one of the protected characteristics.

Indirect discrimination

Indirect discrimination occurs when a provision, criterion or practice is applied to an individual or group that would put persons of a particular characteristic at a particular disadvantage compared with other persons.

Discrimination arising from disability

When a disabled person is treated unfavourably because of something connected with their disability and this unfavourable treatment cannot be justified, this is unlawful. This type of discrimination only relates to disability.

Harassment

Harassment is defined as unwanted conduct relating to a protected characteristic that has the purpose or effect of violating a person's dignity, or which creates an intimidating or hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for that person.

Victimisation

It is unlawful to treat a person less favourably because he or she has made allegations or brought proceedings under the anti-discrimination legislation, or because they have helped another person to do so. To do so would constitute victimisation.

Bullying

Bullying is defined as a form of personal harassment involving the misuse of power, influence or position to persistently criticise, humiliate or undermine an individual.

¹The exception to this is pregnancy and maternity, which does not include protection by association or assumption – a woman is only protected from discrimination on grounds of her own pregnancy.
