

THE BLACK AND ASIAN COACHES ASSOCIATION (B.A.C.A) IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE FA PRESENTS

2018 National Coach Development Days

A series of three full days of coach development, expert talks, practical coaching masterclasses and networking.

The Black and Asian Coaches Association has a mission of empowering communities and linking worlds. Over 2018 we will be delivering three coach development days, targeting BAME, female and disabled coaches who are significantly under-represented across the game, but open to all coaches.

These events will:

- Be free to attend
- Count for FA Coach License CPD hours
- Include classroom, practical and networking opportunities
- Include free inclusive refreshments at accessible venues

Anyone wanting to attend these events MUST, due to security requirements book via the below booking links:

- 13 May, Droylsden FC, Manchester (Limited to 40 places): Book here
- 10 June, Brighton & Hove Albion FC, American Express Elite Performance Centre, Brighton (Limited to 50 places): Book here
- 23 June, Sporting Khalsa FC, West Bromwich, Birmingham (Limited to 100 places): Book here

We expect all of these events to sell out, so we would encourage you to book online as soon as possible.

For any questions on these events please contact

Steve.Smithies@TheFA.com or Kevin.Coleman@TheFA.com

