Blunsdon FC have been around since the early 1900's but we're formally known as "Blunsdon United FC". The club has enjoyed many ups over the years including promotions and cup finals but also some downs, the current club was reformed back in 1998, primarily with senior & youth grassroots football at its heart. Since Blunsdon FC's current Senior Team reformed back in 2013 it's been a steady and successful progression to where they are today.

Back in 2016/17 season Blunsdon won the 'double', by winning the Cirencester and District Division 2 Championship as well as the Alexcars Cirencester Junior League Cup. After moving from the Cirencester & District to the Swindon & District football league ready for the 2018/19 Blunsdon claimed their third trophy since reforming by winning the Swindon and District Division 1 Championship in their first season of being in the SDFL, also gaining promotion to the SDFL Premier Division. Unfortunately, the next two following league seasons (2019/20, 2020/21) were made null and void due to the coronavirus pandemic, which had devastating effects on grassroots football across the country. But with the Covid situation improving for grassroots sports towards the middle of 2021 we were lucky enough that the SDFL managed to host the Your Sport Swindon Cup competition towards the tail-end of the 2020/21 season. It is with great delight that Blunsdon won this cup after a stop, start 2 seasons, by beating their closest rivals in the league Globe with an emphatic 4-0 win. Which brings us to the current season 2021/22, Blunsdon FC, sponsored by Blunsdon Mortgages, have won the SDFL Premier Division title, securing promotion to the Wiltshire Senior League for the 2022/23 season.
